

Because the model is never called on the three upper paths, fabrication there is structurally impossible — a property of the control flow, not a request made in the prompt.